ANNEXURE TO THE NOTICE

Explanatory Statement as required under Section 102 (2) (b) of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act').

The following Explanatory Statement relating to Special Business at Item Nos. 1 and 2 of the accompanying Notice sets out all material facts as required under Section 102 of the Act.

Item No. 1

The Securities and Exchange Board of India on August 10, 2014 approved the setting up of Real estate Investment Trusts (REITS) as a new source of financing for real estate developers. The objective of REITS is to resolve the financing problems faced by real estate developers and the banks funding them. The real estate developers will use their own funds and those of the banks to create earning assets, and then sell them to REITS, thus freeing funds for further projects.

In the simplest form, REITS are the real estate equivalent of equity mutual funds. REITS are basically income avenue. They will buy commercial property generating rental income and commit them for 10-15 years, or even longer. All rental income will be distributed to those who have invested in the REIT. When the tenure of the fund ends, the REIT will sell its holding in the underlying property and distribute the proceeds to the investors. REITS offers less risky alternative to investing in under construction properties and also provide regular income.

In order to overcome the liquidity crunch and thus ensure steady flow of liquid funds for speedy execution and completion of its real estate projects, the Company plans to set up REIT in accordance with the guidelines, rule and regulations as may be framed by Securities and Exchange Board of India in this regard and accordingly, it is proposed to alter the Incidental Object Clause of the Memorandum of Association of the Company in the manner as set out at Item No.1 of the accompanying Notice.

The Directors recommend the Special Resolution at Item No. 1 of the accompanying Notice for your approval.

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, none of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel of the Company and their relatives is concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the said resolutions.

Item No. 2

The existing Articles of Association (AoA) of the Company are based on the provisions contained in the erstwhile Companies Act, 1956 and several regulations in the existing AoA contain references to specific Sections of the Companies Act, 1956, while some of the regulations are no longer in conformity with the provisions contained in the Companies Act, 2013.

With the coming into force of the Companies Act, 2013, several regulations of the existing AoA of the Company require alteration and/or deletion. Accordingly, it is proposed to replace the entire regulations in the existing AoA by a new set of regulations based on Table 'F' of the Companies Act, 2013 which sets out model Articles of Association for a company limited by shares.

Shareholders' attention is invited to certain salient provisions in the new draft AoA of the Company as hereunder:

- Provisions relating to the appointment of independent and women directors included;
- Provisions relating to the appointment of Key Managerial Personnel included;
- Provisions relating to the giving of special notice by shareholders for moving any resolution at a shareholders meeting have been amended;
- Provisions relating to disclosure of interest to be made by directors at the meeting of the Board and vacation of office by Directors have been amended;
- Provisions relating to the use of the electronic medium to communicate with the shareholders and directors included;
- Various existing Articles have been streamlined and aligned with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.
- The statutory provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 which permit a company do some acts 'if so authorised by the Articles' or provisions which require a company to do acts in a prescribed manner 'unless the Articles otherwise provide' have been specifically included.

The proposed new draft AoA is being uploaded on the Company's website for the perusal of the shareholders.

The Directors recommend the Special Resolution at Item No. 2 of the accompanying Notice for your approval.

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, none of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel of the Company and their relatives is concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the said resolution.
